Find out what your government is deciding — before they vote on it.

Fees, condo rules, flood projects, surveillance cameras, what gets built on your street — decided in meetings most of us never hear about, while we're at work. By the time it's in the news, the vote is over. The People's Notice reads the government's own records every day and tells you, in plain English, what's coming and what it means for you.

What's being decided in Broward and what it costs you — spelled out simply, checked against the official record.

When the meeting is — and how to speak the date, the deadline, and what happens if nobody shows up.

Who represents you

from your city commissioner to Congress — one page, your county.

Every fact links to the source

no spin, no party, no agenda. Check everything yourself.
